Dr. Joseph Galloway, Placement Director at Bowling Green. He brings together, at this meeting, recruiters from the major Government and industrial organizations in the country to discuss recruitment problems and techniques. As an interesting aside, an award is made at the Conference, based on student balloting, to the recruiter who best represents his organization. Our recruiter, [] won this award in 1968.

3. Overtime Survey: At the request of the Executive Officer, DD/M&S, we conducted a quick survey of Agency Offices who pay overtime to employees in grades GS-12 and above to determine the rationale and basis for such payments.

4. Language Studies--Summer Only Program: The Associate Deputy Director for Management and Services called [] the Chief, Staff Personnel Division, on 17 May to advise him that the DD/M&S suggested we make language training materials available to summer only's who are studying languages and are interested in refresher, maintenance or improvement of their skills. [] is working out the details with [] OTR Language School.

5. Consideration of Excess Employees for New Assignments: We have now received 75 referrals, have completed reassignment review for 46 who were declared excess and have 29 under consideration. Five employees on the excess list have been reassigned to other components thus far.

6. Upward Mobility Program: We now have four firm candidates with EOD dates set for the July Upward Mobility class. There are a total of 29 in process and we hope that 15 will enter on duty. This Program is designed to select those disadvantaged people who can be trained to perform basic clerical and, in some instances, typing assignments in certain components of the Agency. We have had reasonable success with the Program and are pleased to report that one of these employees who entered on duty in 1970 as a GS-02 is now a GS-04 and the recipient of a Quality Step Increase.
